

Improve your overall English Language ability

GENERAL ENGLISH

Whatever your reasons for learning English, all students need a solid base and our General English programmes provide you with that. Our courses help to develop all four skills of the English Language: reading, writing, listening and speaking, with a focus on improving your ability to communicate clearly and effectively.

With three intensities to choose from, and a minimum course duration of one week, students can tailor their course to their individual needs and also add private tutorials to further personalise the academic programme.

Many students choose to add one of our popular English Plus course options to a General English course. Modules include: British Culture, Conversation, Fashion, Media, Nursing or Travel & Tourism.
